MULTIFUEL ENERGY LIMITED
THE FERRYBRIDGE MULTIFUEL 2 (FM2) ORDER
NOTICE UNDER SECTION 56 OF THE PLANNING ACT 2008 AND REGULATION 9 OF THE INFRASTRUCTURE PLANNING (APPLICATIONS: PRESCRIBED FORMS AND PROCEDURE) REGULATIONS 2009

Notice of acceptance of an application for a Development Consent Order to construct, operate and maintain the Ferrybridge Multifuel 2 (FM2) Power Station, land within and adjacent to the Ferrybridge Power Station site, Stranglands Lane, Knottingley, West Yorkshire

PLANNING INSPECTORATE REFERENCE NUMBER: EN010061

Notice is hereby given that the Secretary of State (the 'SoS') for Energy and Climate Change has accepted an application for a Development Consent Order (a 'DCO') made by Multifuel Energy Limited (the 'Applicant') of Inveralmond House, 200 Dunkeld Road, Perth, Perthshire, PH1 3AQ under the Planning Act 2008 (the 'Application'). The Application was submitted to the SoS (via the Planning Inspectorate) on Thursday 31 July 2014 and accepted for examination on 20 August 2014. The reference number for the Application is EN010061.

SUMMARY OF THE PROPOSED DEVELOPMENT

The Application seeks consent for the construction, operation and maintenance of a new onshore thermal generating station (a 'multifuel power station') with a capacity of up to 90 MWe (megawatts electrical) gross and associated development (the 'Proposed Development') on land within and adjacent to the Ferrybridge Power Station site, Stranglands Lane, Knottingley, West Yorkshire, within the administrative boundary of Wakefield Metropolitan District Council.

The main components of the Proposed Development comprise:

• a multifuel power station (the 'power station') that will be capable of generating up to 90 MWe gross of electricity from the combustion of waste derived fuel from various sources of processed municipal solid waste, commercial and industrial waste and waste wood;

• a new electrical connection (the 'grid connection') to export electricity from the power station to the electricity grid (the Application includes three potential grid connection options, all of which comprise an underground cable and one of which would involve the construction of a new substation - only one of the grid connection options would be constructed);

• improvements to an existing access road known as the 'unnamed road' to provide an alternative means of access for cars and light goods vehicles to access the power station from Stranglands Lane; and

• a new foul water connection between the power station and the existing foul water drainage network (the Application includes two potential foul water connection options, of which only one would be constructed).

The multifuel power station forms the nationally significant infrastructure project, with the grid connection, improvements to the unnamed road and foul water connection being associated development.

The DCO (the 'Order') will, if granted, authorise the construction, operation and maintenance of the Proposed Development and would, amongst other matters, make provision for the following within the Order limits:

• the carrying out of works to streets;

• the formation and laying out of means of access or improvements to existing means of access;

• the discharge of water to any watercourse or any public sewer or drain, including taking up and altering pipes and making openings into, and connections with, any watercourse, public sewer or drain;

• the survey and investigation of land;

• the felling or lopping of trees and shrubs;

• entering on and appropriating the subsoil of, or airspace over any street as may be required, including the use of that subsoil or airspace; and

• the extinguishment of the rights of, or removal or repositioning of apparatus belonging to, statutory undertakers.

ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT ASSESSMENT (EIA)

Due to its nature and size the Proposed Development is classified as an 'EIA development' under the Infrastructure Planning (EIA) Regulations 2009. The Application therefore includes an Environmental Statement (an 'ES') documenting the findings of the EIA undertaken.

The opportunity has also been taken to provide at any time waiting restrictions at junctions that fall within the original consultation study area, but outside the existing or proposed zones.

At any time waiting and loading restrictions to alleviate congestion are proposed as follows;

• High Street, Pinner, from outside No. 9 to No. 31 on the north side.

The Publisher reserves the right to modify these Terms and Conditions at any time. Such modifications shall be effective immediately upon publication of the modified terms and conditions. By submitting Notices to The Gazette after the Publisher has published notice of such modifications, the Advertiser, including any principal, agrees to be bound by the revised Terms and Conditions.

2 By submitting a Notice to the Publisher, the Advertiser agrees to be bound by these Terms and Conditions which represent the entire terms agreed between the parties in relation to the publication of Notices in The Gazette and which every Notice shall be subject to. For the avoidance of doubt, these Terms and Conditions shall prevail over any other terms or conditions (whether or not inconsistent with these Terms and Conditions) contained or referred to in any correspondence or documentation submitted by the Advertiser or implied by custom, practice or course of dealing which the parties agree shall not apply, unless otherwise expressly agreed in writing by the Publisher.

3 The Publisher reserves the right, to be exercised at its sole and absolute discretion, to make reasonable efforts to verify the validity of the Advertiser.

4 The Publisher may, at its sole and absolute discretion, edit the Notice, subject to the following restrictions:

4.1 the sense of the Notice submitted by the Advertiser will not be altered;

4.2 Notices shall be edited for house style only, not for content;

4.3 Notices can be edited to remove obvious duplications of information;

5 The Advertiser accepts that it submits a Notice entirely at its own risk and that the Publisher shall have the sole and absolute discretion whether to accept a Notice for publication or the timing of any publication of a Notice, such decision to be final. The Advertiser must satisfy itself as to the legal, statutory and/or procedural requirements and accuracy relating to any Notice. Where the Publisher has accepted a Notice for publication, the Publisher shall have the sole and absolute discretion to refuse to publish where the content of the Notice, in the publisher's sole opinion, may not comply with any such requirements. 6 Neither the Publisher nor The National Archives (or any successor organisation) (including affiliates, officers, directors, agents, subcontractors and/or employees) shall be liable for any liabilities, losses, damages, expenses, costs (including all interest, penalties, legal costs (including on a full indemnity basis) and other professional costs and/or expenses) suffered or incurred, howsoever arising (including negligence), whether arising from the acts or omissions of the Publisher, The National Archives and/or the Advertiser and/or any third party (including, without limitation, any principal of the Advertiser) or arising out of or made in connection with the Notice or otherwise except only that nothing in these Terms and Conditions shall limit or exclude any liability for fraudulent misrepresentation, or for death or personal injury resulting from the Publisher's or The National Archives' negligence or the negligence of the their agents, subcontractors and/or or employees.

7 For the avoidance of doubt, subject to clause 6 above, in no circumstances shall the Publisher be liable for any economic losses (including, without limitation, loss of revenues, profits, contracts, business or anticipated savings), any loss of goodwill or reputation, or any special, indirect or consequential damages (however arising, including negligence).

8 Where the Publisher is responsible for any error including which, in the Publisher's reasonable opinion, causes a substantive change to the meaning of a Notice or would affect the legal efficacy of a Notice, upon becoming aware of such error, the Publisher shall publish the corrected Notice at no charge and at the next suitable opportunity. Both parties agree (including on behalf of any principal, if applicable) that this shall be the sole remedy of the Advertiser (including any principal, if applicable) and full extent of the limit of the Publishers liability in these circumstances.

9 In the event that the Publisher believes, in its sole opinion, an Advertiser is submitting Notices in bad faith, is in breach of clause 11 below, or has dealings with Advertisers who are in breach of these Terms and Conditions or has breached such Terms and Conditions previously, the Publisher may require further verification of information to be provided by the Advertiser and may, at its sole and absolute discretion, delay publication of those Notices until it is satisfied that the Notice it has received is based on authentic information.

10 The location of the Notice in The Gazette shall be at the discretion of the Publisher. For the avoidance of doubt, the Notice shall be published in the house style of The Gazette.

11 The Advertiser warrants:

11.1 that it has the right, power and authority to submit the Notice;

11.2 the Notice is not false, inaccurate, misleading, nor does it contain potentially fraudulent information;

11.3 the Notice is submitted in good faith, does not contravene any law (statutory or otherwise) nor is it in any way illegal, defamatory or an infringement of any other party's rights or an infringement of the British Code of Advertising Practice (as amended and updated from

The Publisher shall consult with the Advertiser as to the way in which such applicable claims, demands or potential claims or demands are handled but the Publisher shall retain the sole, absolute and final decision on all aspects of any matter arising from the aforementioned indemnity, including the choice of instructing legal representatives, steps taken in or related litigation and/or decisions to settle the case. The Advertiser shall use best endeavours to provide, at its own expense, such co-operation and assistance as the Publisher may reasonably request including in respect of any principal (if applicable) and including, without limitation, the provision of and/or access to witnesses, access to premises and delivery up of documents and/or any evidence, including supporting any associated litigation and/or dispute resolution process.

14 The Advertiser shall promptly notify the Publisher in writing of any actual, threatened or suspected claim made by a third party or parties against the Advertiser and/or the Publisher in relation to a Notice. The Publisher reserves the right, following a claim or threatened claim, to immediately remove the Notice which is the subject of the complaint from the website at www.thegazette.co.uk and all other websites controlled by the Publisher containing the Notice, as well as from any other medium in which the Notice has been placed that is controlled by The Gazette, where possible. The Publisher may require the Advertiser to amend the Notice at its own cost before it agrees to re-publish the Notice if it is capable of rectification to avoid the claim, threatened or suspected claim. Any reinstatement of the Notice shall be at the sole and absolute discretion of the Publisher, whose decision in respect of such matter shall be final. Other than withdrawal of a Notice following a claim or threatened claim, withdrawal of a Notice post-publication shall take place only upon the written instructions of The National Archives (or any successor organisation) or if there is a credible claim that the continuing presence of a Notice endangers an individual's personal safety or a request is received from any applicable regulatory and/or enforcement authorities.

For the avoidance of doubt, all Notices and any content therein shall be Crown copyright and may be subject to the Open Government Licence (or any variation thereof).

16 The Advertiser accepts that the purpose of The Gazette is to disseminate information of interest to the public as widely as possible in the public interest and that the information contained in the Notices published in The Gazette may be used by third parties after publication for any purpose and that such use may be beyond the control of The Gazette. In such instances, the Publisher accepts and the Advertiser agrees that the Publisher shall have no liability whatsoever in respect of such use by third parties.

17 The Advertiser acknowledges and agrees that the publication of any Notice is subject to any court order and/or direction of the court or such other regulatory and/or enforcement authorities including the Information Commissioner's Office, the police, the Financial Conduct Authority (and such other related regulatory organisations), the Solicitors Regulation Authority and such other authorities as may be applicable (without limitation) and that the Publisher may delay, refuse to publish or withdraw from publication if it has received evidence to that effect and may not publish such notice until it has received written evidence from the court (as the Publisher may reasonably require from time to time) that demonstrates that any previous order and/or direction has been withdrawn and/or is no longer applicable (as the Publisher may reasonably require from time to time) and/or, subject to any statutory and/or applicable laws, The Gazette may share information and/or data related to the Notice and/or the Advertiser's account related to such authorities and the Advertiser hereby consents to such disclosure(s).

18 The Advertiser accepts that the Charges may be amended from time to time and will be payable at the rate in force at the time of invoicing unless otherwise agreed by the Publisher in writing. The Charges must be paid in full by the Advertiser in advance of publication unless other requirements of the Publisher in respect of the payment of such Charges (as determined from time to time) are notified to the Advertiser.

19 If the Advertiser wishes to make a complaint, all such complaints shall be submitted in writing to customer.services@thegazette.co.uk
